1. In order to effectively promote and execute publicizing measures concerning laws and regulations related to Intellectual Property Rights protection, and to urge NDHU's faculty, staff, and students to honor Intellectual Property Rights, the NDHU Intellectual Property Rights Protection Promotion and Execution Team (hereinafter referred to as The Team) has been established.
2. The members of The Team include the Vice President, all Office Deans, all College Deans, all Directors (Committee for General Education, Center for Teacher Education, Office of Accounting and Statistics, Psychological Counseling Center, and Personnel Office), the Secretary General, a member with legal expertise, and two student representatives. The Vice President also serves the post of Convener; Dean of Office of Library and Information Services, Executive Secretary.
3. A legal expertise member assigned by the post of Convener and his term of office is two academic years
4. Two student representatives: elected by the NDHU Student Association (one college division, one graduate student). The term of office is one academic year and can be reappointed.

5. Job description of The Team:

- (1) Planning and driving activities promoting laws and regulations related to Intellectual Property Rights.
 - (2) Setting into action the legal use of campus network, software, and various writings.
 - (3) Researching and drafting regulations and measures concerning the violation of Intellectual Property Rights from NDHU's faculty, staff, and students.
 - (4) Concluding guidelines and standard operating procedures in terms of Intellectual Property Rights promotion and protection.
 - (5) Assisting NDHU's faculty, staff, and students in handling Intellectual Property Rights disputes.
 - (6) Other major issues related to Intellectual Property Rights.
6. All the team members are to be summoned every academic year; temporary meetings if necessary. Other faculty or staff can be invited to attend the annual meeting if relevant.
7. These rules and all amendments are implemented upon ratification by the Administrative Council and approval by the President.
